DONALD EUGENE WHITAKER

DEDICATION

In this book the familiar faces, exciting moments and events, memories of shared experiences and friendships of one year of school life are pictured.

Only a short while ago, 1966, Donald Whitaker took part in such a year of school life. Now he and many other young Americans have laid down their lives to preserve our ideals of freedom and individual liberty. Is this willingness to stand for our country's traditions something that is learned as are names, faces, and dates? Or is something you can't find written on diplomas?

Call it school spirit, patriotism, loyalty--it is the deepest feeling we can have. It is tied up with everyone of us, past and present, as human beings. It is the vision, the character, the dreams and purposes for a better America and a better world.

The 1968 EWHISCO honors Donald and all the alumni of this and other schools who have made so great a sacrifice to uphold all that we hold dear. We affectionately dedicate this book to him and to them.

Mr. Victor Gragg, former superintendent of LaGrange High School, has been employed as superintendent of the newly organized C-I district. He is presently studying for his Doctorate at the University of Missouri.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Jerome VanGels, superintendent at Ewing, 1967-68, has helped get much needed equipment and supplies in the school. He was senior sponsor and attended both Senior Days at Columbia and at Kirksville.

Mr. VanGels came to Ewing from Newtown, Missouri where he had been superintendent for eight years. His wife teaches home economics at Lewistown this year. Their daughter, Julie, is in the fifth grade.

Mrs. Sharon Wallace has been bookkeeper at the Ewing School for the past year and a half. She graduated from this high school in 1964.

Floyd Chance, an alumnus of E.H.S. is secretary to Mr. VanGels. He previously served as secretary to the R-IV Board for eleven years.

Mrs. Ball, who teaches shorthand, typing, general business, and bookkeeping, has taught in Ewing High School for twenty-five years.

For the past seven years Mrs. Ball has acted as principal of the high school; at various other times she has served in this capacity. She sponsored the Student Council and was co-sponsor of the junior class with Mr. Wilson, and is general "trouble shooter" for the school.

HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY

Changing times and ideals make for changing faculties.

Of the eight teachers portrayed here, only Mr. Norcross and Mr. Ward will return next year. Mrs. Ball also will be back. All of the teachers leaving the system have made many friends who regret their departure.

Mr. Robert Nelson who taught social studies is not shown.

COOKS

Mrs. Ira Spratt, in charge of school lunch program; Mrs. Cecil Carter, assistant; and Mrs. Raymond Wheelock; assistant. Not shown are Mrs. George Turner and Mrs. Kenneth Wiseman who came in for two hours each day to assist with the serving.

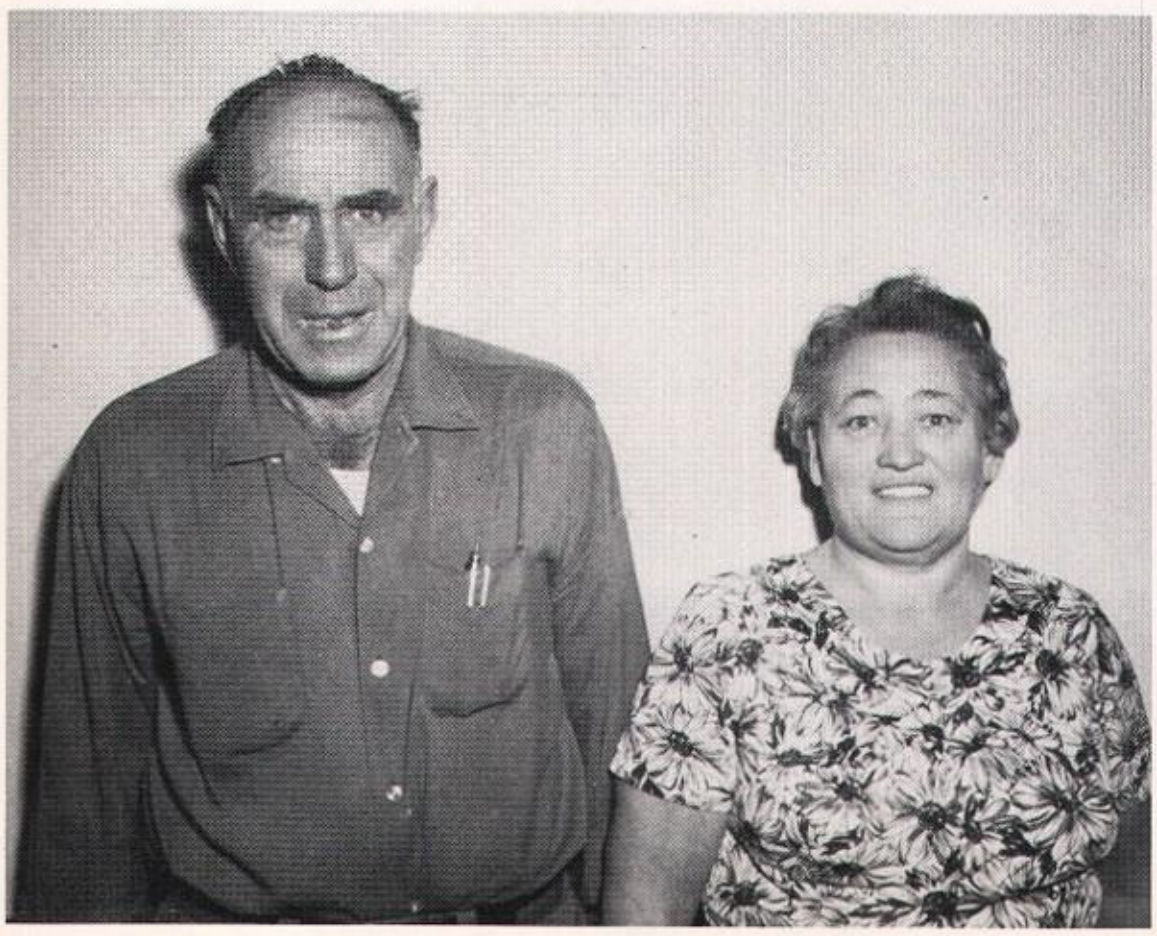
On these ladies rest the responsibility of preparing appetizing and nutrious meals for over 300 persons per day.

PEOPLE VITAL TO OUR SCHOOL

BUS DRIVERS

Merle Wiseman; Mrs. Bob Shouse (Vera); Mrs. Merle Wiseman (Freddie); Dale Sparks, driving for Bob Shouse; Cecil Clickner, and Ray Crandall.

The school bus, like the mail, must go through--rain, shine, snow, or what have you. The six experienced drivers shown here have proved their efficiency by getting their buses and passengers to school at the proper time and with very few delays.



MR. AND MRS. RALPH KING, CUSTODIANS

Maintaining the school plant, keeping it heated or cooled, getting rid of the mountains of waste paper, repairing equipment, and sweeping the acre or more of floor space, are only part of the duties of the school custodian.

This year is the second that the Kings have done this work at Ewing. They plan to be here again in 1968-69, doing their best to meet the demands of the job.

WITH JOY AND HEARTACHE WE ARE SENIORS

We entered Ewing High as freshmen in 1964 and passed two happy years as freshmen and sophomores with few responsibilities.

As juniors in 1966-67, we worked hard selling magazines, operating the basketball lunch room. and putting on our play. We earned a substantial sum. Mrs. Wheeler was our sponsor.

In our final year many individual class members did much for the basketball teams, the Bow-Wow, and EWhisco. We enjoyed a brief holiday in the Ozarks as a reward for our four years of endeavor.

Our greatest goal was achieved May 16, 1968, when we received our diplomas. We express our thanks to our teachers, our sponsors and our parents for their help during these years.

Lindsay Griifin

Lindsay transferred to the Ewing School in his senior year; consequently he had no opportunity to take part in many activities in this school. He is fond of outdoor sports and spends much time fishing and camping with his pal, David Logue.

Other persons pictured on this page have displayed qualities of leadership and character which have added much to the life of the school.

Bill Hicks has always been willing to use his considerable talent in drawing to those classes or organizations in need of it. Linda Hudnut's pep and vitality have helped to make her a popular student.

Donnie Goings has been outstanding as a leader in school activities. Kenny Gillespie called "Giz" by classmates, could always be depended on to do or pay his share, a rare gift, indeed.

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.
The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

CLASSES

SOCIAL STUDIES TEACHES—THE WORLD, ITS PROBLEMS, ITS HISTORY

Mr. Robert Nelson of Palmyra began his first year of teaching at Ewing this year. He was graduated from Kirksville State College in 1967.

Geography, a new course taught this year at Ewing, had sixteen students enrolled. Mr. Nelson taught this among other history classes. They studied all the continents of the world in detail.

Seven students were enrolled in contemporary issues this year. They have concentrated on discussing world problems as well as a variety of U. S. problems. Mr. Nelson was the instructor.

The ninth grade citizenship class has studied the fundamental processes of the major governments of the world, personal responsibility toward American and world citizenship in the twentieth century, and current events which affect the lives of the people of the world.

Coach Terry Wilson teaches this class with thirty-five enrolled.

Speech class listening intently to Rod Lynn explain hot rod car mechanics.

Two studious (?) boys poring over a test.

LANGUAGE—CHANNEL OF COMMUNICATIONS

English study in both junior and senior high school class have stressed correct writing and speech habits.

Seventh, eighth, and ninth grades study basic English skills. Sophomores and juniors work applying the concept learned. They also study types of American and general literature.

Senior English is specialized study of journalism, speech, and English literature.

Mr. Norcross supervising his seventh grade class during workbook study.

A writing assignment in literature. Kenny Gillespie (Gizmo) in foreground.

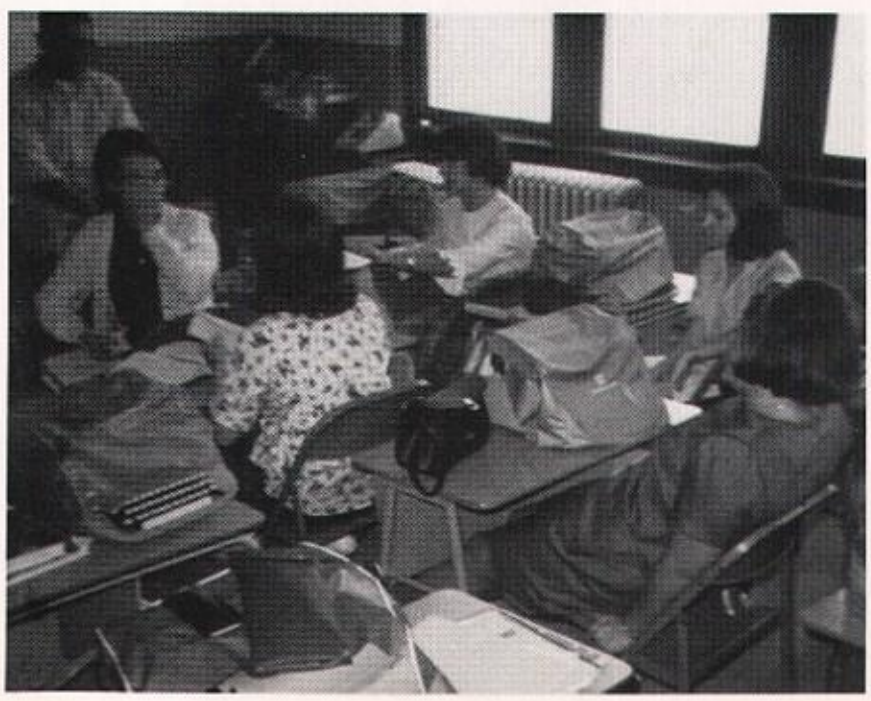
Mrs. Jerry Ball

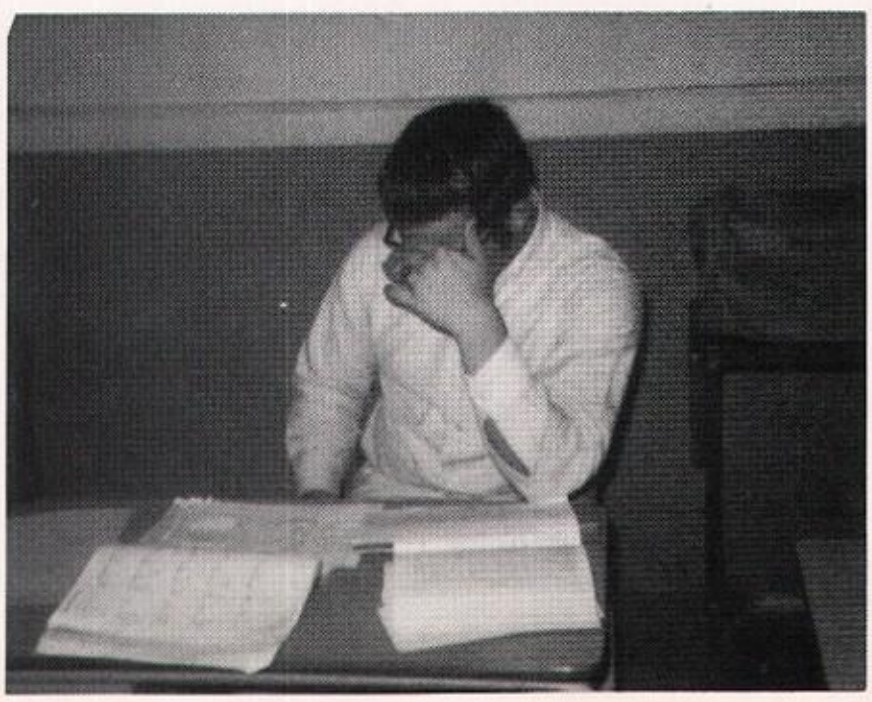
The vocation courses of typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping are taught by Mrs. Jerry Ball. After the student has completed these courses, he has something to offer the job market.

General business, another course offered in this department, teaches the student something of banking, how to interpret his income statement, and to keep business and personal records.

BUSINESS EDUCATION FOR FUTURE CAREERS

Noon hour divides the bookkeeping class and during this time some students visit while others, for instance, Mike Meyers study for the remaining half of the class.





BAND

GIRLS WIN LA BELLE TOURNAMENT

Coach Delmas Norcross led the girls to a 21--5 record during the 1967-68 season. The girls won the first-place trophy at the LaBelle Tournament and placed second in the South Shelby Tournament and third in the Lewistown Tournament. They finished second in the conference.

Previously the finest record established by a Ewing High girls' team was 19--8.

Cheryle Wiseman, senior, and Lonna Wiseman, freshman, each broke the individual season scoring record with 495 and 607 points respectively.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER—THE PROM

With "Moonlight and Roses" as their theme, the juniors entertained the seniors and faculty at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom on Saturday evening, May 11.

Brad Gunlock acted as master of ceremonies and a short program was presented. Vonna Stone played several songs on the piano and Shirley Schultz read a poem dedicated to the seniors. Mrs. Ball gave each senior an amusing award to fit his personality. The music for the prom was furnished by the Rooks.

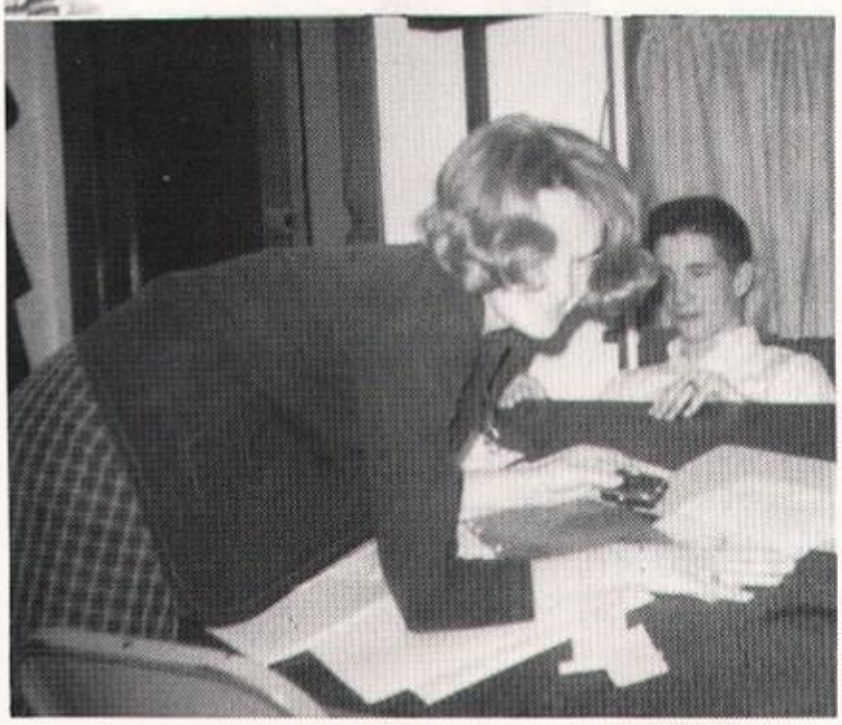
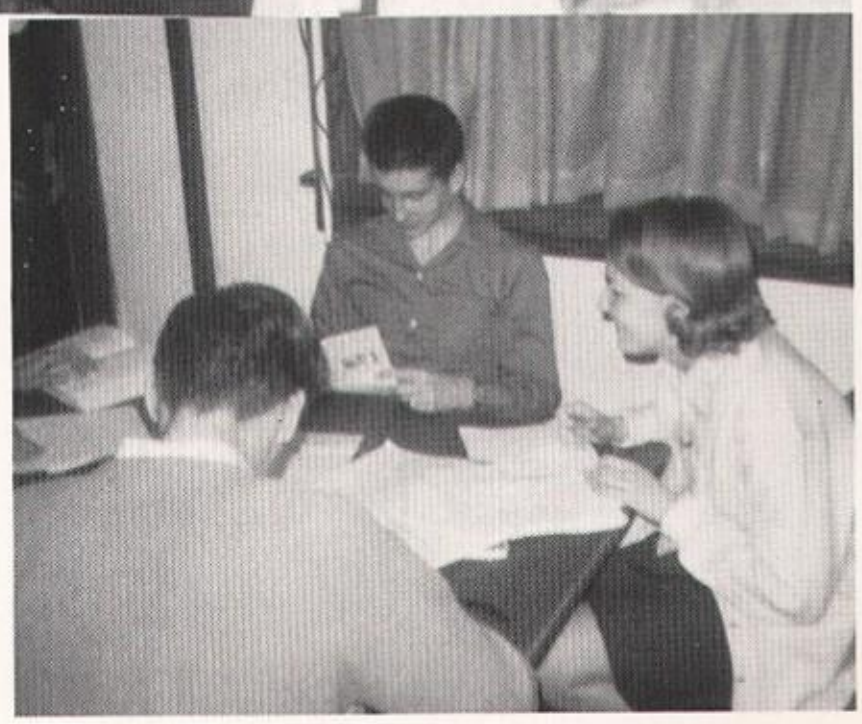
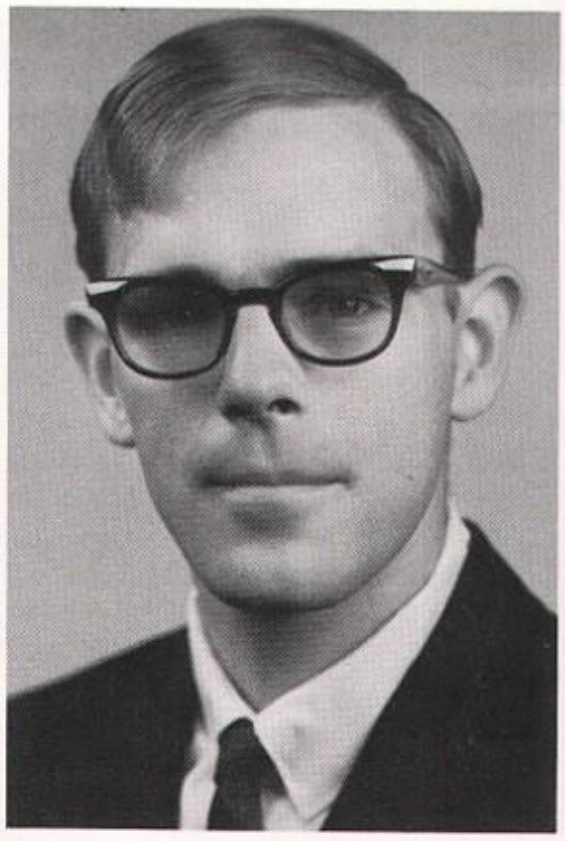
BOW-WOW STAFF
Jack Olson, Harlena Spratt, Cheryle Wiseman, Mrs. Frericks, Roderick Lake, Janice Perrine, and Roger Garrison.

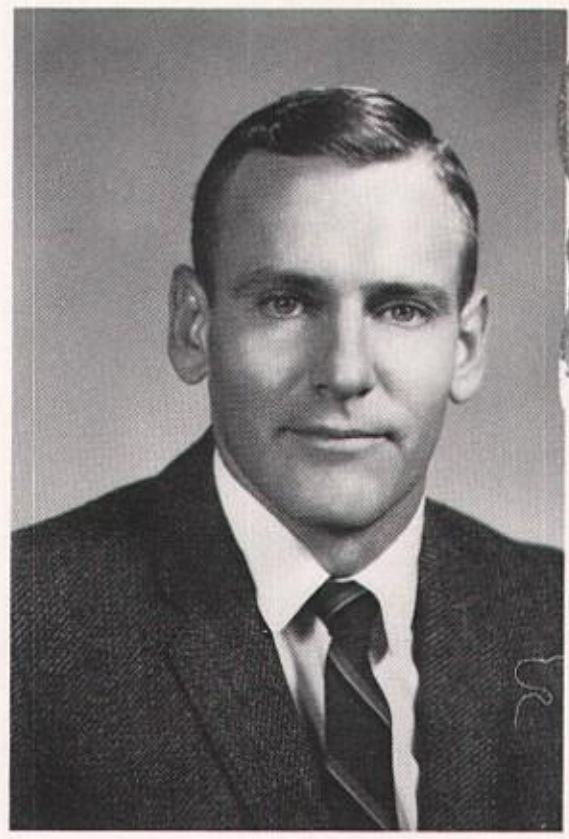






Mr. John Briggs

Mrs. Harlie Boltz



Mr. Virgil Zuspann

THEY ADDED VARIETY AND INTEREST

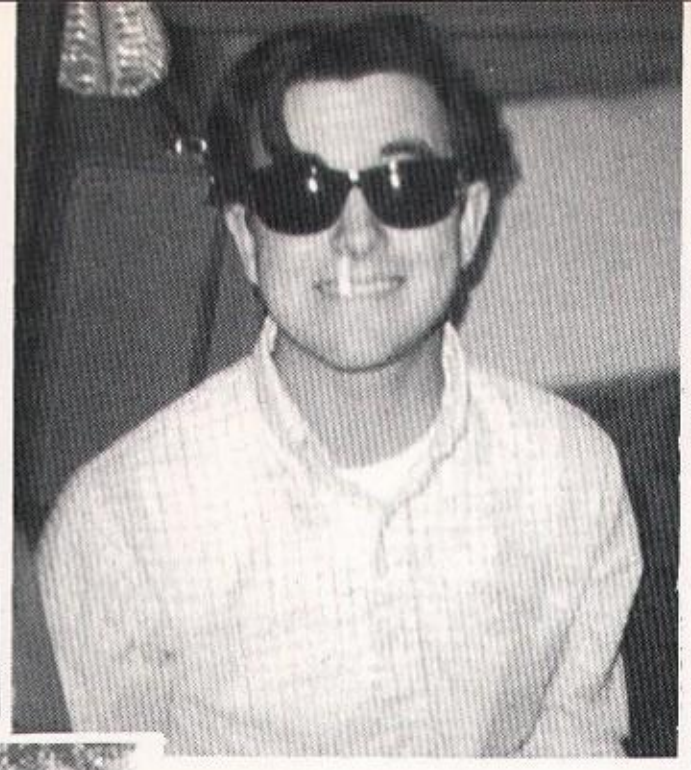
Mr. Briggs and Mrs. Boltz did practice teaching here. Mrs. Boltz taught in the English department and Mr. Briggs in the science department.

Mr. Zuspann was employed to teach social studies but resigned after three months to work on his Masters Degree.

Mr. Solter, science teacher, giving lecture to chemistry class.

Mrs. Boltz shown here in study hall, was well liked by the students in English I,II,III, and 8th.

Mr. Briggs lectures his general science class on the facts of environment and heredity.



SENIOR TRIP

Thirty-one of this years seniors enjoyed a three-day trip in the Ozarks. They stayed at Kirkwood Lodge where they made the most of the heated swimming pool, large terrace room with nightly entertainment, and many other things for recreation.

The seniors toured the Bagnell Dam area and also took a speed boat ride.

Coach Wilson and Mrs. Ginelle Hudnut sponsored the group.
